THREE GENERATIONS OF TRADITION.

Our story begins with our grandparents, who opened the original Highway Inn in September 1947 on Farrington Highway in Waipahu, serving Hawaiian food and American diner fare. Soon after, they had a line of people standing outside of their modest store, waiting to eat lau lau and beef stew.

Over the years, we have moved our Waipahu location three times and are now settled at Moloalo Street off Farrington Highway, not far from our original roots. Our grandparents believed in putting their hearts into each of their homemade Hawaiian dishes. Although we've grown to add a second full-service restaurant in Kaka'ako and a café operation at the Bishop Museum campus, as well as offering catering and frozen food shipping, our preparation and recipes have remained unchanged.

We proudly carry on our grandparents' tradition of serving "A Taste of Old Hawai'i."
