“TŪTŪ” MEANS GRANDPARENT IN ‘ŌLELO HAWAI‘I (Hawaiian language), from the longer tūtū wahine (grandmother) or tūtū kāne (grandfather). Tūtū’s Place is inspired by the wisdom and traditions passed down by our kūpuna (elders).

The menu for Tūtū’s Place celebrates Hawai‘i’s diverse culinary heritage and features a mix of permanent and rotating items, many of which come from recipes handed down by our grandparents. We hope dining with us makes you recall going to your tūtū’s house to eat and hoping you would get to enjoy your favorite mea ‘ai (food).

‘Ai ā mā‘ona. Tabemasho. Kain tayo. Sik fan la. Meokja. Come and eat!
